

ILAN,

WE BELIEVE IN YOU!

We are so proud of your theatrical achievements – and for always keeping the joy in all you do!

You have shown us “How to Succeed by Really Trying A Lot!”

Lots of love,
Dad, Mom, Isaiah

We could not be more proud of your journey with this program and in life. Your passion and leadership to grow in every aspect of performance and production management is inspiring. You have made a significant investment of time, talent, patience, and energy to ensure a $uccessful production! You will always be our baby and at the same time you are an amazing young woman.

Because you tried, you will succeed...in business and any other challenge you choose to tackle!
We Love You!

WHO'S WHO IN THE CREW

Jasmyn Tupper (Class of 2018) is a proud AVID student and took drama last year, and found she enjoyed not only watching plays but also found she enjoyed acting. She enjoys traveling and seeing local productions and believes that in show business, no part is too small!

Isabella Weiand (Class of 2016) is thrilled to be working crew for How to Succeed.... She has worked on crew for previous LC productions including The Little Mermaid, Noises Off!, Kelly the Destroyer vs. the Springfield Cobras, A Midsummer Night's Dream, Thoroughly Modern Millie, and Into the Woods. She is also a costuming intern at the Spokane Civic Theatre.

Ava Wessels (Class of 2016) is excited to be working on crew for How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying. She has previously worked on The Little Mermaid, and Noises Off. She thanks the LC Drama department for these opportunities.

Kaylee Westbrook (Class of 2018) is so excited to work with the Tiger Drama department again. She was involved in LC's 2015 Opening Night, Thespians' Choice and The Secret Garden (Jane) at TAC in 2009. She can't wait to work more with the department and would like to thank her family and friends for putting up with her theatre obsession.

WHO'S WHO IN THE CREW

Blue Palmer (Class of 2018) is excited to be part of Tiger Drama's current production and recently participated in IE East in Duo Acting. Blue is in Drama class and looks forward to more time on and back stage.

Emily Philip (Class of 2017) is very excited to be a House Manager and a part of this production. She was an usher last year for Into the Woods and also in the Beginning Drama class. She is super proud of her friend Julian Lee and wishes her the best of luck!

Emelie Silven (Class of 2016) is an exchange student from Sweden. She has done multiple dance recitals since age 3, and now dances hip hop, jazz, & ballet. She enjoys singing and performing, and even had the privilege to dance for the King of Sweden. After she graduates, she will go back to Sweden to finish her schooling. She thanks her family and host family.

Hannah Summers (Class of 2018) is excited to continue to expand her technical theater experience. She has been in I Never Saw Another Butterfly and Our Town at St. Mark's and LC's A Midsummer Night's Dream and Thespians Choice: Student Directed One Acts. Hannah loves being involved in drama and plans to continue throughout her high school career.

Love, Mom, Dad, and Sis

Congrats to LC drama on their amazing showing at IE Regionals. What an amazing

WHO'S WHO IN THE CREW

Sophia Anne-Moore Moore (Class of 2019) participates in the LC Drama club. She enjoys writing music, going outside, hangout with friends, and performing in productions like: Opening Night and The Importance of Being Earnest (Civic Theater). She has taken voice and guitar at Stacy De & Co, back in Illinois. She is thankful to have this opportunity.

Miranda Anthony-Miller (Class of 2018) is excited to be the crew head of costumes for the first time. She has previously worked on crew in multiple shows at Lewis and Clark including Kelly The Destroyer, and A Midsummers Night's Dream. She is excited to continue her work throughout the department.

Taylor Melville (Class of 2018) is excited to be part of the hair and makeup crew and learn from others.

Grace Ndayizeye (Class of 2017) is excited to be part of H2$ and looks forward to more opportunities to be involved in the future.

WHO'S WHO IN THE CREW

Hannah Lister (Class of 2018) is excited to be ushering How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying. She has previously worked with costumes in Thespians' Choice and is looking forward to working with Lewis and Clark's drama program for many years to come.

Amber Little (Class of 2019) has always had a passion for the arts. She's been in two productions at Sacajawea Middle School; and involved her school choir from nine years old to fourteen years old.

Emma Lyons (Class of 2016) is thrilled to be designing lights for this production. She has designed several shows at LC and in the community. Emma will be attending the University of Northern Colorado in the fall to study theatre design and technology. She dedicates her participation to Bill.

Adeline McMurray (Class of 2018) is in percussion and has been in theater for many years. Some of her theatrical appearances include; Mrs. Gultch (The Wizard of Oz), Violet Beauregard (Charlie and the Chocolate Factory), and Ginger (Beauty and the Bee). She thanks her Mom, Dad, and brother; Jackson who always support her in all her artistic choices.

ABOUT THE DIRECTORS

Greg Pschirrer (Director/Choreographer) is enjoying his 12th season as Drama Director where he has helmed over 35 productions. As a performer, he appeared in: The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, Forever Plaid, Cats, and West Side Story. He holds a BA in History (Gonzaga) and an MA in Theatre Production (CWU). This production is dedicated to his parents for instilling a love of storytelling and all the love, support, and guidance over the years.

Jeffrey Boen (Musical Director) is pleased to join the LC family for his first year. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Music Education from the University of Oregon. Enormous thanks go out to friends and family who have unconditionally given their love and support from near and far.

Suzanne Maguire (Production Coordinator) holds a Bachelor's degree and Secondary Ed. Certification in Speech Communication and Theatre from Northern Arizona University. This is her fifth year happily working with Tiger Drama. For another season of support and participation, she is ever grateful for her wonderful husband, Richard and kids (Brennen, Anna & Elliott)!

WHO'S WHO IN THE CREW

CaraLee Howe (Class of 2016) is so excited to be a part of this production. She just finished her directorial debut with Thespians' Choice where she directed Mathematics of Divorce. She would like to thank her friends and family for their constant love and support. She currently represents LC as a Lilac Princess and is a member of the 'Fab 14'.

Mia Hunt (Class of 2016) is delighted to be involved in another LC production. Last year, she was on the hair and make-up crew for A Midsummer Night's Dream and she ushered for Into the Woods. It has been a great privilege and joy for Mia being a part of the LC drama program. She wishes she had joined the drama program in her freshman year!

Vanessa Kaufman (Class of 2018): Vanessa is very excited to finally be a part of an LC production. She has been an Usher for Into the Woods and is currently in the MT class. She has been acting since she was 3 and is excited to work backstage for the first time.

Madison Leeds (Class of 2016) has done makeup for the LC production of The Little Mermaid and costumes for the production of A Midsummer Night's Dream. She has had a passion for makeup her whole life and plans to go to school for cosmetics and esthetics to further her career.

WHO'S WHO IN THE CREW

Halaina Halsted (Class of 2017) is a Running Start Student at Spokane Falls Community College but still participates in the Lewis and Clark Chamber Choir. She has worked on costumes for LC's Into the Woods and Kelly the Destroyer vs. The Springfield Cobras, and hopes to help with costumes for many shows to come.

Caroline Halvorson (Class of 2016) is so excited to be working backstage for this show! She has previously crewed for Into the Woods and appeared onstage in Thoroughly Modern Millie. She would like to thank the drama department for the fun times both on and off the stage.

Hanna Herzog (Class of 2017) is thrilled to be in her first LC tiger drama production! She loves running cross country and track, and has been playing soccer since she was 6. She thanks the cast and crew for being so welcoming, Pschirrer for this great opportunity, and lastly, her sister for always sticking by her side.

Molly Herzog (Class of 2018) is excited to be participating in her first LC Tiger Drama production. She does track and soccer at LC and enjoys playing the piano in her spare time. She would like to thank Mr. Pschirrer for this opportunity and her parents for their support.

STAGE MANAGERS

Justina "JJ" McDirmid (Class of 2018) is eager to take on her first stage-managing job. After working with costumes for Into the Woods and dancing in A Midsummer Night's Dream, JJ embraces the drama department and plans on taking part in many more productions. She thanks all the upper-classmen for being so welcoming as well as her friends and family who've supported her.

Chloe Forsberg (Class of 2016): is excited to stage manage H2$! She previously stage managed 3 shows for LC, and just finished directing The Diary of Adam and Eve for the student directed one acts. She thanks Pschirrer and Maguire for providing her many opportunities, and for being great teachers and mentors. She also thanks her parents for rides, even though she is seventeen and should have her license.

2015 - 2016 SEASON

PAYING THE WAY

This year's season theme is all about laying the groundwork for future success for students and our department. With production concepts new to Tiger Drama like student directed shows as well as a new Thespian Board format for our student leaders, we are paving the way for Tiger Drama to expand opportunities and continue the tradition of excellence our audiences and school community have come to expect. Please join us and our parent group, STAGE in Supporting Theatre Arts Growth and Education! Thank you for being part of paving the way.

Become a Tiger Drama Patron

If you have the means and the heart to share, please consider being a financial sponsor of LC Tiger Drama.

Examples of what donations will sponsor:

- $50 helps sponsor guest teachers who are experts in their fields (stage make-up, stage combat, lighting design, etc.).
- $100 helps us add scripts to the theatre library, a valuable classroom resource.
- $250 helps us maintain or replace our stagecraft supplies (tools, appliances, lumber, etc.)
- $500 helps us maintain or replace lighting equipment.
- $1,000 helps us pay for the rights for a play.
- $2,500 helps us pay for the rights, scripts, and music for a musical.
- $5,000 helps us maintain or replace parts of our flies system (curtains, rigging, etc.).

WHO'S WHO IN THE CREW

Katie Grainger (Class of 2016) has crewed for shows such as Thoroughly Modern Millie, Noises Off, and Into the Woods. She is so excited to work with such an amazing department again.

Greta Grim (Class of 2018) is delighted to be part of her first LC Tiger Drama Production and is exceedingly grateful to Pschirrer and Maguire for allowing her to be on crew. Greta is a wonderful and fabulous person if a bit conceited, she is excited to be helping out on crew. She loves theatre and hopes to help out with more productions in the future.

Liesl Grim (Class of 2019) is ecstatic to be a part of LC's drama production How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying! This is her first year in a drama production, and looks forward to learning all the tips and tricks.

Harley Haberman (Class of 2016) made his makeup artist debut in A Midsummer Night's Dream. Since then he has worked as a freelance makeup artist in Spokane. He has had the privilege of being the makeup artist for music videos, short films, and stage productions including: Into the Woods, Kelly the Destroyer vs. the Springfield Cobras, and Seussical.

WHO'S WHO IN THE CREW

Bri Barrick (Class of 2018) is so thankful to be a part of this production! She would like to thank Pschirrer and Maguire for finding a place for her on crew and cannot wait to be a part of future productions!

Jackson Bewick (Class of 2018) is excited to be working on his second show at LC. He will be doing lights again just like he did last year for Into The Woods. He is excited to try new things and further his education in theatre.

Jordan Edwards (Class of 2017) is beyond happy to have the opportunity to participate in this production. She was previously involved in Thespians' Choice. She would like to thank her family for supporting her, and her amazing directors, Suzanne Maguire and Greg Pschirrer.

Bri Gardiner (Class of 2018) is incredibly excited to be crewing for her very first LC Drama production. Since she was a child, she loved theatre and being a part of LC Tiger Drama has been a major goal of hers. She is ecstatic to be involved with How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying and would like to thank the rest of the people involved for their hard work.

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

Micaela Ackermann (Class of 2018) is very excited to be involved in her first LC production. She has previously been seen in shows at Spokane Children's Theatre, Christian Youth Theatre, CST, Civic, Missoula Children's Theatre, and TAC and has taken voice with Brad Perry. She would like to dedicate her performance to her family and friends.

Kemo J. Alvarez (Class of 2016) is excited to be in his first LC tiger drama production. He is a member of the LC speech and debate team and also enjoys making music and short films with his good friends. He is excited to be involved with this LC tiger drama and would like to thank Mr. Pschirrer for the opportunity to be a part of this amazing production.

Noel Case (Class of 2018) loves drama and has been involved in productions since his early teens. He qualified for state in solo musical last January and became a Thespian this fall. This is his fourth LC production after Meet the Roommates, A Midsummer Night's Dream and Opening Night 2015. Prior to high school, he starred in Bugsy Malone, Annie, and Shrek.

Erin Chaves (Class of 2018) is so excited to be making her LC musical debut! Most recently she was seen as Eve in The Diary of Adam and Eve, and she is thrilled to be back onstage. Special thanks to Pschirrer, Maguire, and her family, for being so supportive in her theatre endeavors!

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

Claire Woodard (Class of 2018) couldn't be more excited to be a part of LC's How to Succeed.... This is her fourth LC production, previously appearing in Mathematics of Divorce, Into the Woods, and The Trumpet of the Swan. She would like to thank Pschirrer and Maguire for making her a part of this wonderful production, and her friends in the drama department for making theatre worthwhile.

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

Eric Rorholm (Class of 2017) is thrilled to be returning to the LC stage. Previously seen at LC in Into the Woods, he has been involved in numerous community productions including Catch Me If You Can and Fiddler on the Roof at Spokane Civic Theatre and has recently begun stage management as well. He would love to thank his friends and theatrical family for their continued patience and support.

Megan Rosenau (Class of 2016) is absolutely thrilled to be playing the role of Hedy! She previously appeared at LC in A Midsummer Night's Dream, Thoroughly Modern Millie, One Acts, and both Opening and Closing Night. She would like to thank Pschirrer, Maguire, and Boen for this incredible opportunity, her supportive family, and wonderful group of friends. She hopes you enjoy the show.

Evan Saggau (Class of 2016) had a small part in educational films for children, and made his stage debut in Opening Night 2015. He made an appearance in Thespians' Choice, and is very excited for H2$. He thanks Pschirrer for the encouragement to continue his path and Maguire for her patience with him. He dedicates his performance to all of his loved ones.

Caroline Slater (Class of 2019) is excited to be part of Tiger Drama. Previous shows include Wait Until Dark (Gloria) and The Miracle Worker (Helen Keller) and The Giver starring Patty Duke (Fiona). She appeared Z-Nation and the film Different Drummers. She studies ballet at Spokane Ballet Studio and voice with Heather Parker. She feels fortunate to have the opportunity to work with Pschirrer, Maguire and Boen.

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

Bethany Daniel (Class of 2018) is probably too excited to follow in the footsteps of her idol, Carol Burnett, and become a scrubwoman! While she's been in other LC Tiger Drama productions, this is her first musical. Other than singing and acting, Bethany enjoys playing her ukulele, spending time with her animals, and reading Harry Potter.

Nick Davis (Class of 2018) is excited to be in his first production at LC. He loves playing sports in his spare time, and plays soccer and football for LC. He dedicates his performance to family and friends, and especially his grandma for starting his love and passion for theatre.

Olivia Davis (Class of 2016) has been involved in theatre since she was eight. This is her second acting performance at LC but she has crewed numerous shows. She plans to continue theatre in college, and wants to pursue a career in law. She would like to thank her family and friends for the love and support they give her, and dedicates this performance to them.

Tailer Englehart-Grotte (Class of 2016) is excited to be a part of this show! She recently directed Meet the Roommates. She has done many other shows in the community within the past year and would like to thank her grandma for all the rides home after rehearsals!

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

Ben Fischer (Class of 2017) is ecstatic to be in LCHS's production of How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying. He has been part of the cast of Thoroughly Modern Millie, as well as the crew of Into The Woods in past years. He thanks his mother, father, stepmother, and friends for supporting him throughout his Drama career.

Ethan Goins (Class of 2018) is excited to be a part of his fourth LC Tiger Drama production. He is so happy that this department has welcomed him in with open arms, and is looking forward to his future here. Ethan would like to thank Pschirrer, Maguire, and his parents for being so supportive of his interests.

Bailey Heppler (Class of 2017) is so excited to be working with her classmates on this production, both onstage and off. Most recently she has been seen in Kelly the Destroyer (Indigo), and Midsummer (Puck). She would like to thank Pschirrer and Maguire for all of the amazing opportunities they give to this department.

Ilan Hernandez (Class of 2016) is proud to be performing in his 8th LC production. He would like to thank Pschirrer and Maguire for this opportunity and for believing in him. He dedicates his performance to his family, Theo Mynka, and all past Tiger Drama role models who helped pave the way for him to be the performer and person he is today.

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

Maddy Murphy (Class of 2018) appeared in LC's Opening Night 2015 and as Emelyn in Meet the Roommates. Theatre holds a huge place in her heart, and she is so thankful for the opportunity to grow as a performer and work with such amazing people. She would like to thank Pschirrer, Boen, and the cast and crew for making this an amazing process.

Will Petro (Class of 2016) is happy to be performing in his ninth show at LC. Recent appearances include Into The Woods, Trumpet of The Swan, and Seussical. In his spare time, he enjoys playing in his band, King Bird, where he plays rhythm guitar and sings. He dedicates his performance to his brother, Michael, who offers endless companionship and support.

Garrett Rahn (Class of 2018) plays the oboe and alto saxophone in the LC Marching, Concert, Jazz, and Pep Bands. He takes private oboe lessons and has previous experience in piano and ballet. He plans on attending either Berklee or UW for music or architecture after graduating. He dedicates this performance to his loving and supportive family.

Trevor Rau (Class of 2019) is so excited to be a member of LC's Tiger Drama. This is his first LC show, but he's been in shows at Spokane Civic Theatre, Spokane Children's Theatre and Theatre Arts for Children. In his spare time, he drums, tap dances, plays soccer and tries to spend time with friends as much as possible.

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

M.E. Martin (Class of 2018) made her theater debut at the age of twelve for the Missoula Children's Theater's production of The Secret Garden. Since then she has joined choir and continued to develop her voice and is currently in LC's Women's Choir. She thanks her friends and family for always being so supportive and for believing in her.

Quincy McFaul (Class of 2019) is excited to be in her first LC production! Her past experiences include The Sound of Music with the Modern Theatre, Seussical, Legally Blonde and Annie with Spokane Civic Theatre. She thanks all of her family for their immense support and also thanks Pschirrer and Magurie for the wonderful opportunity! Enjoy the show!

Caleb McKen (Class of 2018) is very excited to be part of his first show at LC. He has also worked with Civic Theatre, Interplayers (The Modern Spokane), and Spokane Children's Theatre. He plays in LC's Jazz I and loves playing and writing music. He thanks all of his friends and family for their constant love and support.

Brittany Mendoza-Peña (Class of 2016) is so blessed to be a part of another LC production. Her past experiences include In the Heights (Nina), Thoroughly Modern Millie (Ensemble) and Into the Woods (Little Red). She would like to thank everyone who has supported her these past four years and hopes you enjoy the show!

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

Beth Lambert (Class of 2016) is excited to be a part of this production! She has previously appeared in LC's Thoroughly Modern Millie (Lucille), Into the Woods (Lucinda), Kelly the Destroyer (Zen), as well as Spokane Civic Theatre's White Christmas (Rhoda). She would like to thank her friends for their constant encouragement and her family for their support.

Julian Lee (Class of 2016) is ecstatic to be in her seventh LC production including A Midsummer Night's Dream, Noises Off, and Kelly the Destroyer. She is grateful to be a part of an incredible department. She thanks Pschirrer, Maguire, and her parents for all their time helping her grow and learn as an artist and a person, their support means the world to her.

Patrick Lynch (Class of 2017) plays in the LC band and has been on crew for many of Lewis and Clark's productions such as A Midsummer Night's Dream, The Trumpet of the Swan, and Into the Woods. This is first production as a cast member and he dedicates his performance to everyone in the drama department for being so supportive.

Iaine MacKay (Class of 2018) is excited to perform in his third LC production. He thanks Mr. Meredith for his constant support of him, and for introducing him to music he once thought outside his bounds. He has previously performed in: Seussical (The Grinch), Thespians' Choice (Patrick), A Midsummer Night's Dream (Egeus), and Tom Sawyer (Injun' Joe).
