DIRECTORS' NOTES

OUTSIDE THE BOX appropriately fits the name for this year's season and the opportunities available for students and teachers. Even with the limitations of remote learning, we were able to learn from new online platforms like Nearpod to share Musical Mondays; daily8count to learn and share choreography; Acapella to record and share vocal cuts for Thespy projects; Flipgrid to record and view performance projects not to mention learning how to perform in masks, 6 feet apart. We are so proud of the work students have done this year despite the many obstacles!

Last summer, we made the very difficult decision to not produce a show this season. We have remained confident that was the right decision for our program but it has been painful missing all the elements of a production and what that brings. We are so grateful that we can celebrate this evening and that, after more than a year, students' creativity, talent and laughter is filling the Lewis & Clark auditorium again!
