We asked our 19 students attending Nationals this summer to answer the question: "What are you most looking forward to about attending the Festival?" Here are some of their responses:

Matthew Read I am excited to learn from incredibly talented people and to see shows with my friends. It will be an amazing opportunity to bolster my actor "tool belt" and grow as a performer.

Jordan Santiago I'm excited to show of what we have been working on all year to experts who can critique us help improve our craft.

Iaine MacKay I'm looking forward to being able to learn new techniques for acting. I'm also simply excited to see some incredible acting and enjoy some time with friends.

Mason Crawford-Heim I am really looking forward to all I will be able to learn on this trip. I can't wait to get every bit of knowledge I can.

Adonis Fernandes I am extremely excited to attend some dance and design workshops. I love the freedom to decide what I am going to learn everyday! Living on a college campus for a week helped me decide what kind of college I wanted to attend!

Erin Chaves I'm most excited to engage in workshops that will help prepare me for next year's college endeavors and expand my knowledge both in performance and life skills.

Trevor Rau I'm both nervous yet excited to broaden my horizons in the college world with the college auditions, but I'm most looking forward to getting expert education in acting technique and methodology that isn't otherwise accessible in our area. I am DYING to go back.

Caroline Slater I am really grateful for the opportunity to audition in front of the participating colleges. For prospective performing arts majors, college audition trips are so expensive. I'm grateful the National Thespian Festival brings so many schools together in one location.

Emma Hendricks I'm excited to see the talent that everyone brings from all over the country. It will be great to take advantage of so many workshops & learning experiences while in a state I have never been to.

Claire Woodard What I'm most looking forward to is attending workshops for all different aspects of theatre! I am also excited to present my third costume design presentation at the IE portion of the festival, and compete with the best student designers in the world!

NATIONAL THESPIAN FESTIVAL 2017

Lincoln, Nebraska – June 24-July 1, 2018

Each year, thousands of theatre students from all over the world arrive on the campus of University of Nebraska, Lincoln for a week of extraordinary workshops, play performances and college audition opportunities. This year, LCHS Tiger Drama will take 14 students to attend! Some students are attending to present their qualifying pieces; others are going to soak up all the Festival has to offer and bring it back to share with the department. We have seniors auditioning for scholarships, juniors auditioning for colleges, and students competing in various Individual Events in performance and technical categories. Look for summer details on our FB page (LCHS Tiger Drama) and at the summer picnic!

OUR GOALS TONIGHT:

- To sustain our scholarship funds for Nationals
- To raise the necessary funds to continue to support Tiger Drama Department needs

Tax deductible checks can be made to STAGE, our parent group, STAGE and STAGE can process debit/credit cards as well. Please see a STAGE parent in the lobby.

Thank you, in advance, for any contribution you can make!
